

Midweek Message

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Sunday, June 23rd at 9:30 a.m.

Join us in person or livestream via our Facebook page. Even in a storm with the boat almost swamped, Jesus comes when we call him to calm the wind and the waves of our lives.

THIS SUNDAY, JUNE 23rd!

Church Picnic

Join us for fellowship, food, and fun at our annual church picnic on the front lawn following worship! Hot dogs, hamburgers, side dishes, and beverages will be provided. The congregation is asked to provide desserts. A free will offering will be taken.

RED, WHITE, & BLUE FOOD COLLECTION

Beginning this Sunday, and through July, we are asking for your help to stock the Pittsford Food Cupboard with some pantry staples. In celebration of Independence Day, we invite you to consider red, white, and blue food items and/or food packaging. For example, foods could be canned tomatoes, rice, blueberry muffin mix, spaghetti sauce, pasta, blueberry jam, OR items could be packaged in red boxes, white cans, or blue bags.

“Next to the Word of God, Music Deserves the Highest Praise” -Martin Luther

Enso Quartet: Ravel String Quartet: II. Assez vif. Très rythmé Maurice Ravel wrote his only string quartet when he was 28, and it's one of the most popular ones ever written. This is the second movement, and starts with lots of pizzicato (plucking the strings), maybe evoking a guitar, and neat rhythms. Eventually it settles down around two minutes in to a calm secondary tune, and then alternates between the ideas.

Ukuthula - Cape Town Youth Choir \(formerly Pro Cantu\) If you were around in the 90s, you might remember Paul Simon coming out with an album featuring South African singers. We've adopted some of these songs in American churches, most famously “Siyahamba” – they're easy to sing in harmony, and Zulu is a very singable language. Here's a nice one by a South African youth choir, with the words translated under the video.
